Advertising Guidelines

Overall criteria:

- Does the activity serve to further the sales of AMS-Merlo products?
- Is the overall cost of the activity reasonable and makes good business sense?

Applied Machinery Sales requires prior approval of ALL advertising/events that involves Applied Machinery sales products. Contact marketing@appliedmach.com for the pre-approval form.

In any advertising, when combining AMS-Merlo products with non - competitive products of any kind, Applied Machinery Sales will limit its participation to the pro-rated share of the cost of the advertising based on the actual percentage of the space devoted to AMS-Merlo products. Claims will not be processed for any advertising that includes competitive products. Advertisements cannot include deceptive information or product claims, or be unlawful in any manner whatsoever.

The MERLO logo and/or product name must appear prominently. Simple product listings do not qualify for Co-Op dollars. Our logos cannot be altered or used in colors other than that of the company. Contact the AMS marketing department for an approved copy of the logos marketing@appliedmach.com.

How Claims Are Processed

Upon receipt of the claim(s), providing we have received sufficient proof of performance, the dealer will be issued a check from Applied Machinery Sales at the earliest possible date. Insufficient documentation will delay claim processing. Co-Op claims cannot be deducted from an invoice remittance by your company, and will not be honored. Charge backs will be issued. This practice is in violation of FTC (Fair Trade Commission) guidelines for advertising allowance. Unauthorized deductions confuse both our records and yours. These will be treated as open and delinquent accounts.

No check will be issued to any dealer whose accounts receivable is 90 days past due.

All claims will be verified and approved by Applied Machinery Sales whose determination is conclusive.
